Jan. 21, 2018

Welcome to Fellowship Church this morning. We have begun a series on the first book of the Bible, Genesis. Today we consider the biblical account of the beginnings of human beings. What difference does it make if you believe that God lovingly formed humans and breathed into them, rather than accepting other accounts of human origins?

There will be refreshments and further fellowship in the church hall after the service.

Next week, January 28, we are participating in a pulpit exchange with local churches to mark the World Day of Prayer for Christian Unity.
